BRYAN WHITE, THIRD GENERATION, JOINS J.N. WHITE ASSOCIATES, INC.

[Perry, NY, January, 8, 2020] Bryan White, a third-generation member of the White family, joins J.N. White Associates, Inc. (dba “JN White®”).

Bryan is joining JN White® after building a career in pharmaceuticals and medical device sales in Florida. He most recently worked for Misonix, Inc. selling wound debridement and spine surgical devices. During his time with the company, Bryan targeted surgeons, trained medical personnel to use equipment and observed surgeries in the operating room. For fiscal 2019, Bryan joined the President’s Club after ranking nationally as the #2 top performing sales representative. He relocated to New York in December and will work as an Outside Sales Representative on the New Business Development Team out of headquarters in Perry, New York.

Bryan is a graduate of Syracuse University’s Whitman School of Management where he obtained a dual major of Marketing and Entrepreneurship & Emerging Enterprises.

JN White® was founded in 1960 as a screen printer by J.N. White. The company has evolved into an ISO 9001:2015 and ITAR certified custom manufacturer specializing in the design and production of membrane switches, graphic overlays and labels. The company works with a wide-range of global companies in many industries including military/DoD, medical devices, electronics and appliances. To learn more about JN White® visit www.jnwhiteusa.com.
